

Obituaries

Infant Rocha
Graveside services will be held at 10 a.m. this morning for the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Rocha, 22809 Broadway in Holy Cross Cemetery, under the direction of Nativity Catholic Church. The boy died Tuesday in Torrance Memorial Hospital. Stone and Myers Mortuary handled arrangements.

Infant Pronold
Services were held yesterday in Pacific Crest Cemetery for the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Pronold, 2409 W. 238th St. The little girl died Monday in Torrance Memorial Hospital. Stone and Myers directed arrangements.

Bertha Trombley
Funeral services for Bertha Trombley, 83, were held yesterday in the Pentecostal Church of Hawthorne. She died Sunday in Harbor General Hospital.

A resident of this area for 14 years, she lived at 15009 Burin Ave., Lawndale.
She is survived by two sons, Robert Trombley, Milwaukee, Wis., and Lewis Trombley, Illinois, and four grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements were directed by Stone and Myers Mortuary.

LITTLE FARMING
Geneva — Only about 10 per cent of all the land in Switzerland is said to be suitable for agricultural purposes.

7295 S. CATALINA AVE., REDONDO BEACH, CALIF.

FOR TOOTH CARE . . . Don Hitchcock, president of the Torrance Dental Health Assn., accepts a check for $100 from Mrs. D. D. Tuggle, president of the Fern-Greenwood PTA, as that unit's contribution to the work of the Dental Health group. The funds, provided by PTAs, service clubs, labor organizations, and industries, is used to provide dental care to Torrance children who might otherwise be denied proper treatment.

Dr. Joseph Bay New Moderator

Dr. Joseph P. Bay Monday served as vice president. He resigned last year since he moved from the city. He still maintains an office here, however. He is a member of the Rotary Club.

TEAC members also heard a discussion on teaching methods presented by Mrs. Mary Long, Seaside eighth grade teacher; Lloyd Rice, Riviera third grade mentor; and James Armstrong, Wood eighth grade teacher.

Led by Donald Duncan, principal of Riviera School, the discussion pointed out that Torrance schools try to allow the teacher to use a method which best suits his or her personality and which ties in with current events or other subjects in which children are most interested.

OIL LUBRICANTS
Pittsburgh—Lubricants made of petroleum were used for the first time in 1869.

YOUTHFUL CANDIDATES . . . Youngsters at Riviera School also voted for president and vice president Tuesday, but these were the officers of the school. In the balloting, Robble Hole was named president, while Penny Brannan was chosen vice president. Shown campaigning for school offices are Robble Hole, Gini Matute, Penny Brannan, Marilyn Flynn, and Maurice Simons.

NEW TEAC OFFICERS . . . New officers of the Torrance Educational Advisory Committee look over a student display of India lore made by a third grade class at Riviera School. Shown are Ed Morang, treasurer; Mrs. C. D. Dutton, secretary; Mrs. Donald Hauser, vice president; Mrs. W. C. Boswell, retiring president, and Dr. Joseph P. Bay, new president.

TV SHOPS IN MERGER . . . The merging of Bill's TV and Jack Higar TV resulted in the recent opening of the new United TV Store at 1959-63 W. Carson St.

TV Repair Shops Merge

A new business was recently formed in Torrance with the merger of Bill's TV and Jack Higar TV into United TV, located at 1959-63 W. Carson St.

Bill Gauss, the Bill of Bill's TV, and Higar have formed a partnership and set up the new TV repair and sales store to provide a faster and more efficient service for their customers.

Gauss' store was formerly located at 1617 1/2 Cabrillo, while Higar's establishment was at 1875 Carson. The new organization will also offer an extensive high fidelity sales and service department.

The new location, in the downtown Torrance business section, is well supplied with parking facilities for the convenience of customers.

Set owners dealing with the new partners are assured of receiving the best in service with the experience of Higar and Gauss equaling over 30 years in the electronic service field.

Board Okays Student Work During Holidays

High school students who want to do so may be released to work one week before Christmas vacation, the Torrance School Board decided Tuesday night.

Students who participate in retail selling jobs will be required to audit a five-hour salesmanship refresher course to be offered at the schools Nov. 28 to 30. The district coordinator of work experience education will supervise students on the job during the holidays.
